PLAN YOUR JOURNEY OVER TIME

Living your life and doing the things you enjoy doesn't mean you shouldn't start to plan for the future.

20s-
30s

30s-
60s

Married? Homeowner? Kids? It's natural you want the best for your family and to protect your future and theirs. You've worked hard, you will want to ensure your money goes to the right people.

With retirement and a new lease of life, it's important to make arrangements for the future. Proper planning means less hassle for your loved ones.

SECURING YOUR FAMILY'S FUTURE

Why do I need a Will?

2/3

of UK do not have a Will

- You decide who inherits your estate.
- you can ensure your family and friends receive what you wish
- you can leave money to charity if you wish.

What happens if i don't have a Will?

- your assets are distributed in accordance with the Law.
- It is not guaranteed your husband, wife or civil partner receives everything.
- Friends or charities will receive nothing.
- If you are unmarried, your partner may get nothing.

Over 60?

If one of you are over 60, you could both be eligible for a Free Will with no stipulations.

FOR WHEN YOU NEED HELP AND SUPPORT

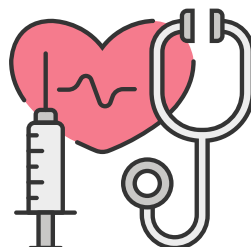

Be prepared with Lasting Powers of Attorney

There are 2 different types of documents:

- Property & Financial Affairs Lasting Power of Attorney.
which provides the people or person you trust most to help you with your bank accounts, pay bills, investments and your home.

- Health & Welfare Lasting Power of Attorney.
this provides the people or person you trust most to speak on your behalf when you are unable for your health and welfare decisions. This can include talking to the doctors when major decisions are needed to be made on your behalf.

WHEN THEY'VE NOT BEEN PREPARED

For when someone has not prepared
Powers of Attorney

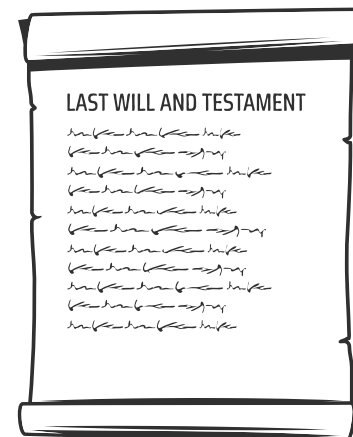

- Where someone has not been able to prepare Powers of Attorney (lasting or general) and they can no longer prepare them due to incapacity
- incapacity can include dementia, Alzheimer's Disease, a stroke for example but generally you become incapable of making decisions for yourself
- An application to the Court of Protection will be required. The Court appoints a Deputy to act on behalf of the person incapable.
- This is not a straight forward process and can be costly and time consuming.

HELPING TO MAKE A DIFFICULT TIME EASIER

What is Probate?

- Probate is a legal document which helps the Executor to deal with an estate.
- Not every estate requires a probate application due to the estate value and/or who the beneficiaries are.
- the Executors role involves many duties and responsibilities.

What service do we provide?

- We can advise you on the process, whether Probate is required and assist you.
- the Executors role involves many duties and responsibilities.
- Probate can be a complicated process, we can help support the executor through it.
- with a sympathetic ear, our experts can help your relatives through all the legal, financial, tax, estate assets and communication duties.
